Showcasing Willunga National Trust...

The National Trust of SA is a non-profit, membership organisation committed to the conservation of our natural and cultural heritage. The Head Office in Adelaide is an autonomous State-wide body which cooperates nationally with the Aust. Council of National Trusts in Canberra.

The Willunga Branch was formed in 1968 and is part of a network of nearly 50 National Trust Branches in S A. Financially, the Branch relies on fundraising, donations, Museum admissions and specific-purpose grants for projects. The Courthouse building was restored and opened in 1970. It was used continuously as a Police Station/Courthouse from 1856 to 1929. The Slate Museum in the stables was opened in 2005 and is now being extended.

Willunga National Trust's vision is to help preserve and enhance the natural and cultural heritage of the Willunga District through information, education, interpretation and practical action, and by contributing to heritage and environmental tourism.

Willunga Branch PRIORITIES are...

- 1) Management of the old Police Station and Courthouse buildings, the adjacent nature Reserve, and the Bassett Boys Schoolroom, which are leased from the City of Onkaparinga
- 2) Telling and interpreting our history at the Slate Museum and the Courthouse Museum, and also via publications, pamphlets and walking trail guides.
- 3) Advocacy on heritage issues in the local community
- 4) Maintaining the local and family history archives at the Courthouse.

The two MUSEUMS...

61 High St, Willunga are open...

Weekends & Public holidays – 1pm to 5pm.
Tuesdays – 11am to 4pm.
Admission (both Museums), Adult $5, Concession $4, children with adult free. National Trust members are free. Inquiries about group visits, functions and the use of the grounds for weddings are welcome. Contact the Warden on 08 8556 2195.

Branch ACTIVITIES...

Monthly committee meetings on third Monday at 7.30pm at the Courthouse. Contact Chair Julie Taylor on 08

8556 2255

Volunteer activities include guiding at the Museum, taking town walks or bus tours, helping with visiting groups, afternoon teas, researching, typing up memoirs and early records, sorting archival material, newspaper clippings, fund-raising, tidying and weeding in the grounds or nature reserve, painting/minor repairs and regular working bees. Items are now being prepared for the Slate Museum extension titled 'Heavy hauling: horses, bullocks, rails and sails'.

New helpers are always welcome – National Trust membership is not essential. Volunteers and members receive the Branch newsletter and are invited to excursions and guest speaker occasions.

A Treasurer and a Secretary are URGENTLY NEEDED for the AGM in August. Can you help in either position? If you think the Courthouse property and associated National Trust activities are important aspects of the Willunga community, please consider helping.

From the editor...

Late newsletter... We apologise for the lateness of In-a-Nut-shell this month and especially to those holding events which have come and gone: Launch & Fashion Parade for c kids clothing of Willunga; Willunga Tennis Club AGM & more. Unfortunately I have been quite ill over the last two weeks. For the same reason I have not been able to enter recent information into the website.

We want to especially thank Lois Koppen for previous help in deliveries and her help in transferring emails into the last two newsletters. This situation has reinforced the need for 1. taking articles through to the 10th of the following month, and 2. monthly help or backup in producing this valuable Willunga asset. Anybody computer literate who would like to regularly donate a little time is most welcome to contact us.

Circulation doubled... Since taking on In-a-Nut-shell, the numbers taken (5 major pickup points) has increased from 300 to 650. We are negotiating this newsletter's delivery to Willunga's letter boxes. However we will have to wait until July for this to give our contributor's time to realise the NEW cut off date and NEW submission Advertisements... The back page is reserved for advertisements, the top three spaces being available at $33 per issue. They are an opportunity for you to let the people know you exist, to tell them of some special business event, a change or of your specialty (what makes your shop so different to anyone else's, eg speedy customer service, on-time deliveries, or you provide the universe's best coffee) The revenue from the ads goes to cover paper... and hopefully from July, deliveries to Willunga households.

Sympathy... We extend our deepest sympathy to Rod Easling's family. Andrew and I did not know Rod, the insurance agent in High St, for long, but were impressed with his humility, integrity, friendliness and compassion.

Apology... We apologise to the Duck Inn Café Takeaway Deli for a glitch in one batch of In-a-Nutshell's that ran some lines through their advertisement and printed the wrong headings. We hope Willunga is taking advantage of food/coffee early till late Thursdays to Saturdays.

Willunga Almond Blossom Update...

Things are really taking shape for this year's festival. Adelaide Biplanes are offering a ride in a Biplane as the major prize for the best individual in this year's inaugural "Paper Aeroplane" challenge. ImproNow, have just had a successful season at the Adelaide Fringe Festival and will be staging a Theatre Sports night on the 3rd of August. Willy Hill Art group will be exhibiting throughout the Festival at The Willy Hill Café and many environment groups have shown interest in coming together for a large environment, walk through display. We are still on the look out for any historic or more recently made film of the area and the people in it. Please contact me if you can help. There is still time to apply for an art and craft, food or display stall. Please call me for an application form. Cheri George 08 8556 3603.

Because exciting extra events are planned for the Show Hall this year, it has been decided to hold the Photographic Exhibition and Competition as a separate event, at a later date.

The Onkaparinga Concert Band will kick off the entertainment this year at the Family Fun Day followed by some funk, folk, country and myriad community groups, singing, dancing and providing entertainment for all, throughout the day. There will be two large marquees this year, the Bank SA stage with food and wine, and a community performance stage. The wonderful Fusion folks will return this year with activities for children on the oval, much talked about after last years event and Old McDonalds Farm will be setting up their travelling farm for the delight of all. Local Artist Justin le Leeuw will be working with the community to make some large lanterns and fire sculptures for the "Fire and Light Spectacular", more news on how you can participate in the workshops at a later date.

Willunga Trade & Tourism Assoc.Inc extends their sincere sympathy to Mandy Easling and family re the sad passing of ROD EASLING. Willunga Uniting Church...Autumn Happenings...

St Judes St (cnr St Andrew's Tce), Willunga.

Our faith community was alive with a vision of colour and beauty this Easter.

Our worship time is literally about giving worth to God. Finding the time to share our stories, our struggles, listen and thank God for the real blessings in our everyday life.

We live in an era when it is not always acceptable to talk about God, the spirit and eternal love, to speak about the soul and an after life. Easter and our worship time is about all these things.

We have heard recently about living in the moment. That everyday is a celebration of the new life Jesus gives. So in effect Easter is not once a year, but everyday.

To commemorate our Easter Day the bare wooden cross was decorated by the congregation. Some remembered to bring their own flowers. For all of us it has been a season of ongoing heat and drought. But flowers were still to be found everywhere on the day. Gorgeous dahlias, roses, jasmine, camellia's and many more blooms.

See attached photos for a look at the beautiful display of the flowered cross. This was taken out of the church in a procession following our celebration service, and on show in our morning tea and outside the church on the day.

Upcoming special events.

A special event in May will be a film night at Noarlunga Cinema on May 23rd at 7pm.

The chosen film for the evening is 'A Night at the Museum'.

Tell your friends and family. This is a fundraiser for the School's ministry team in the local area schools.

Bloke's and Girl's brekkie's continue, with a joint brekkie held on Easter Day. A lovely relaxed cooked BBQ brekkie was held in the Bell Paddock under the old gum trees.

Also put July 7th in your diaries for a special Big Band presentation.

The Campbelltown Big Band will perform a concert in Willunga Uniting Church at 6.30pm. Those lucky enough to attend our carol's evening last Christmas, would have seen this band in action.

Ticket prices as follows, Adults $10, Children $5. Limited places available so book early. For tickets contact David 08 8557 7020.

Any enquiries welcome, contact Jenny on 85 56 27 58.
