Showcasing Willunga Suzuki Violin Studio and Orchestras...

ings from 8.30am to midday, at various stages from the very beginning of learning the violin through to the first stages of orchestral playing.

To provide opportunities for her students to experience playing as part of an orchestra, Wendy runs three different orchestras, catering for the musical needs of students of all ages. This is something that is usually only afforded to those who live in the Adelaide metropolitan area. The Willunga Youth Orchestra (for youth of all ages!) gives an annual Studio concert in August (Sunday 5th August this year), as well as a day tour of various Fleurieu schools.

As the students reach an advanced standard they are offered the opportunity of playing in the Willunga Chamber Orchestra, directed by Wendy. This orchestra gives charity concerts three times a year, in the Old Show Hall in Willunga, often featuring a guest artist. Last year nearly $1000 was raised for very worthy causes. Even if you don't play, you might like to support this orchestra of talented amateurs, all fine players. The next concert will be held on Sunday July 1st at 2.30pm. The WCO rehearses on Thursday evenings, and another cellist is urgently needed.

NEETO, the third orchestra founded, coached and directed by Wendy, was formed to give adult beginners the opportunity of playing together. NEETO (the name stands for 'never, never, ever, too old') rehearses on Friday evenings and performs four times a year in the studio. There is no coaching fee, but plenty of help to improve the playing, and lots of fun. Amateur means 'lover of an occupation' and there is no doubt that these three orchestras have plenty of that! Groups of Wendy's violin students also play in the Quarry and Farmers' markets, Almond Blossom Festival, Community Carols and recently in the Wooden Boat Festival in Goolwa.

Wendy is an ardent believer in the Suzuki method, and the success of this method shows clearly in the groups and orchestras. She has been teaching violin and viola in the Sellicks and Wil-lunga area for approximately 23 years - her students start at age 3 to 83. Wendy studied violin in SA, Queensland and overseas, gaining advanced accreditation at the Royal and London Colleges of Music, and also studied composition and conducting in UK and France. She is now one of only two violin teachers in SA to hold the Diploma of Suzuki Talent Education, an internationally recognized accreditation. Her contact 'phone number is 0418 844 230 for a return call.

Invitation to Sponsors for Folk Festival...

The Fleurieu Folk Festival is Free Family Fun! Set in the beautiful historic town of Willunga on the Fleurieu Peninsula, the festival presents a weekend of music concerts and sessions, dance, workshops, bush poets, children's entertainment, stalls, in fact there's something there for the whole family – and it's free! Bring an instrument and join in the sessions or step on stage at a blackboard concert. Kick up your heels at the Bush Dance. Browse around the craft stalls and Saturday's Farmers Market. Watch the kids have fun with face painting, maypole dancing, clowns, Punch & Judy and the Young Talent Showcase. Discover your own talent at one of the many workshops, or just relax and enjoy the vast array of local, Interstate & Overseas performers.

The Fleurieu Folk Festival committee is seeking your support for the 2007 Fleurieu Folk Festival on the 26th - 28th October. The news that the 2007 Fleurieu Folk Festival will be held at Willunga has generated a great deal of enthusiasm and indications of cooperation and support from local trade and community organisations. We have no doubt that the Festival can become a major annual cultural showcase that has the potential to attract visitors to the Region.

The Festival is a free, not-for-profit event run entirely by volunteers and which relies on support from sponsors, community donations and government arts & tourism funding where available.

We see this as a golden opportunity for sponsors to advertise their brand at an exciting new event in their region and at the same time create a visible perception that they are making a contribution to the local community in a very positive and tangible manner.

Our representative, Sue Timmins will be calling on you in the near future to enlist your support by way of any donation you may deem appropriate.

We hope you'll agree this is an event worthy of your support.

Willunga Walking Festival Update...

The launch of the Willunga Walking Festival on the 10th April, was well attended, with 20 enthusiastic members present. It was great to welcome back all those people who worked so hard to make the Festival happen last year, reunite to make it happen again this year.

The date for the festival is Saturday 13th October. The day promises to be jam-packed full of fun, with walking tours, music, the arts, environmental forums, bike rides, family activities and entertainment including a charity Fun Run. This year we will continue the theme of old shoes, with a mystery pair of "famous shoes", a street play, theatre sports, circus themes, and the Ministry of Funny Dancing, just to name a few.

The Willunga Walking Festival is for the people of Willunga to come together and celebrate the wonderful life in Willunga. It's not too late for you to get involved or offer your special talents. Our next meeting is on the 13th June at Jamae Raw Productions, on the corner of High Street and St Lukes Street at 7.30pm. Please either email Karen on karen.bdesign@activ8.net.au or phone Vicky for more information.

Aldinga Rd, Willunga. Queen's Birthday long weekend. What an ideal time to book B&B accommodation in either Willunga or McLaren Vale or drive your mobile accommodation down to one of the caravan parks in this picturesque part of the Fleurieu Peninsula.

Come for the weekend and visit the markets on Saturday, (the Willunga Farmers Market is on too), then on Sunday and Monday enjoy gourmet food and superb wines from the Southern Vales. Indulge! Enjoy!

Winter stimulates thoughts of warm woollen hats, jumpers, shawls and scarves, cosy ugg boots, honey on hot crumpets or honey and lemon to soothe a sore throat, a hot fragrant bath or the atmosphere created by a room lit up with scented candles. Fashionable natural coloured hand spun and hand knitted woollen garments will be on sale at the market. If you like to 'do it yourself', wool, mohair and alpaca fleeces or hand spun yarns will also be available. Stock up on honey, fragrant soaps, and environmentally friendly soy and palm wax candles. The ugg boots come in a variety of colours and sizes. Make your life cosy this winter.

These are only a few suggestions, there is so much more to see and buy at the Market. Come and discover for yourself.

Stay in Willunga a while longer and visit Ross Roses where you will find True Blue, Australian rose varieties or taste Willunga Bakery's scrumptious pies and pasties.

Willunga Almond Blossom Festival Update...

The 38th Almond Blossom Festival is not so far away. Many local environment groups are planning to provide us with an environment walk-through display in the Willunga Recreation Centre (stadium) and we will be running a question and answer colouring in competition for children to help raise awareness of environmental issues and have a bit of fun. This year's Fire and Light Spectacular will have an added focus, as local Yankalilla artist Karen Hammat has kindly allowed us to bring some beautiful lanterns made in community workshops to our festival. They are exquisite shell shapes and were made especially for the Leafy Sea Dragon Festivals opening night with the theme of our fragile coast. It is wonderful that more people will get to see these lanterns and with Justin de Lueew's fire sculptures and lanterns we are in for a true spectacular. Please call me if you or your community group are interested in participating in giant lantern making workshops or Fire Sculptures.

The Pipers are coming back this year, and the float entries are starting to roll in for the Main Street Winter Wonderland Parade!

If you are looking for an entry form for the parade please pick one up from the Library or give me a call. Tickets for the Almond Blossom Masquerade Ball will be on sale soon, so start making those masks and look forward to a wonderful night of intrigue "Who could that masked man be?" on Saturday the 4th of August.

The Bank SA Marquee programme will give folks a great afternoon's entertainment, kicking off with the Onkaparinga Concert Band. Akoustic Odyssey, formerly Highly Strung and people's choice award winners for the 2006 Adelaide Fringe Festival, will be entertaining us with their exciting world music fusion. Local girl Kristal Collins will be performing with her band and she is sensational. If you love country music don't miss this girl.

To all you knitters out there grab an entry form for the knitted beanie competition from the Green Room, the library or give me a call, there are some wonderful prizes to be won (see article) and they will be displayed at the Family Fair Day.

If you have a few hours to help out, leading up to and at the Festival give me a call. There are many and varied jobs, some small, some large. There's sure to be one that fits you & your interests.

Almond Blossom Report... Currently canvassing for sponsorship. Cheri presented a budget for the Festival. Still looking for sponsors for the fireworks. Children are a focus for activities with the parade, Sunday making activities and color. Letter to be drafted and sent to Bob Scott expressing thanks for his past contributions to the parade. Directory on notice board to be updated to show Cheri's name and phone no.

Move-it Report... Deborah Cranston - All the walking groups are very popular. Mixed holiday tennis last week was very popular and we are back to ladies tennis next week. Circle dancing days are always popular and will be starting again soon.

Basketball... Margaret Peters - The recent Junior Country Basketball Championships were one of our most successful ever. Just 6 teams were entered, but both U/16 girls and boys won their division. Willunga finished runner-up in U/14 girls. New winter season, Seniors Tues 1st May, Juniors Mon 7th May.

Cricket... Paul Williamson - Successful end of year function was held at the Alma. Under 12's were provided 'goodies' free of charge and eagerly accepted.

Grounds... Steve Roberts - A Whipper Snipper was taken from the shed. A lockable area in the shed is required. Needed to rope off goal square during week so turf is not damaged. There were problems in the recent heavy rains with water streaming off the oval and surrounds going into school grounds. Need to put a mound parallel to northern fence to take water towards cricket nets. Gerald and Steve spoke about the opportunity to access grey water for future oval watering. We should be able to get water much cheaper and we can be assured supply in times of possible future water restrictions.

It would cost about $4,000 to grass and irrigate area near cricket nets. Action: Trevor to get quote for broader storm water drainage remedy.

Leon Bignell, State Member for Mawson, presenting a cheque for $16,500 to Trevor Desmond, president of Willunga Recreation Park Inc last Monday night. The grant is towards the cost of recent upgrading of the tennis court facilities at the recreation park.

Tennis... Robin Loechel - AGM to be held 7th May. 18 Junior teams. 4 teams won premierships. The surface of the tennis court seems to have stabilized. Even though the lines are in need of remarking there was no point in doing so until the surface was fixed. We need to decide what to do with the surface and consider a 10 yr maintenance plan. Action: Gerald to be asked to get in touch with the engineers.

Quarry Market... Pam Jensen - Suggestion made to swap gates. Shut top gates. Pam is meeting Mayor re parking. Encourage people to come in side gate. Pam to work with Neil to resolve issues. Market days are going very well.

CWA... Deborah on behalf of Joy Craig of CWA - advised she and two others attended a CWA meeting as visitors. They asked if insurance was required if others helped them serving food from CWA Hall on market days. They will not be doing the Almond Blossom this year and the proposed Drought Relief Soup day has been cancelled.

RSL... Moss Hancock - Dawn Service will be held on Anzac day 6.15a.m. All welcome.

Willunga Visitors Directory...

Your monthly In-a-Nutshell now includes a directory of Willunga's accommodation, eateries and interesting places to visit, as well as emergency numbers. It is the yellow sheet on the back of this newsletter.

The Willunga Visitors Directory has been produced because Willunga businesses are regularly asked for this information by visitors to the town. Many have told us they find it very useful.

The Willunga Visitors Directory is also on www.WillungaFestivals.com website with extra details.

Using your Willunga Visitors Directory...

Businesses... use it to quickly assist with enquiries, point them also to a copy on the main street noticeboard and to copies of In-a-Nut-shell available at the listed pick up points.

Residents...

1. keep the directory close at hand for your own reference,
2. take your friends out to some of Willunga's unique shops, restaurants and activities,

3. show your visiting associates, friends and relatives Willunga's wide range of accommodation.

Still to come... Once everyone who is currently listed has been contacted and their details finalised, laminated copies will be available to businesses. Copies will also be made available to libraries and tourist information points around the Fleurieu, South Australian tourist groups, bus and limo companies.

A Willunga Business Directory has been requested by a number of business operators and it is in its early stages.

It will be a great companion to the current Willunga Visitors Directory.

"Willunga" is aboriginal for "place of green trees"
