Willunga News & Website

The Website...

In 2004, Aine Bennett (the Festival Coordinator that year), Rilda Offe and older son Michael in a brain-storming session re promoting The Almond Blossom Festival realised there was a place for an internet presence. They not only saw the importance of a website, but one that would incorporate all events in Willunga. Michael offered to set it up. As the site progressed it became clear it could be much more...

Promoting Willunga to the world...

The website name chosen was www.WillungaFestivals.com... its purpose being to promote Willunga and its many events, as well as places to eat, visit and stay to the world.

How tourists organise their itineraries is changing and a high percentage now organise where they visit and where they stay via the internet. We have had national and international emails enquiring about facilities, events and tours available in our region. As a result of this website, tourists have come to Willunga and our businesses have directly benefited from these Australian and overseas visitors.

The initial aim of this website has been very quickly and effectively achieved.

What you will find on the website...

Events... big & small
Food & Accommodation
Galleries, Cellar Doors & Nurseries
Local Weather Forecast
InaNutshell on PDF
Community Groups
Churches
Sporting Clubs
Venues for Hire... and more.

Two needs... As we were setting up the website, we could see the benefits of a 'sister' website servicing Willunga residents, organisations, clubs and businesses. Because of the work and costs involved in setting up a second site, we have incorporated some of the second site into www.willungafestivals.com until the new site can be set up.

A NEW site... The extra information has made www.WillungaFestivals.com unwieldy to use, but we are hoping to very soon have financial and extra volunteer support to build a new site that will cover both aspects and be very easy to navigate.

The Newsletter...

The "Willunga Informer" began in 1973. It was edited by Martin Dunstan and published by Willunga Recreation Park. After Martin left the district, the "InaNutshell" was started in 1975 to promote the Almond Blossom Festival. Between 1975 and 1990 the InaNutshell was produced, collated, stapled and hand delivered by a variety of Willunga women most notably Beverly Miller (We'll give you more detail in future editions).

InaNutshell was reintroduced by Joan Turner in 2002. In late 2006 we responded to Joan's request for someone to take it on and produced our first edition in February 2007.

Whilst Joan kept InaNutshell close to its original format (to enable quick set up), we felt an upgrade could make it more useable for and suited to Willunga's current needs.

Our aim is also to integrate it with the Willunga website... particularly to reduce doubling up on the work load.

The upgrades to InaNutshell have been well received and effective circulation has more than doubled.

Book your ads in advance...

We want to give every Willunga business the opportunity to advertise in InaNutshell and due to the limited space will be alternating ads... but you will need to book yours asap. We have a number of repeat ads for the rest of 2007... so book yours now so you don't miss out. Call Rilda NOW on 08 8556 2554.

What's next...

InaNutshell can be better yet and some new sections will be added soon. Let's know if you have positive suggestions or if you can assist in any way. Businesses interested in participating in a helpful hints page should contact us.

We are seeking outside sponsorship for both the website and the newsletter. This will enable larger newsletter distribution and an upgraded website. We have also applied for a small council grant.

If you can volunteer some time for uploading photos, proofing text, deliveries etc we would like to hear from you.

InaNutshell has inspired McLaren Vale to start their own community newsletter with a band of 50 helpers. WOW!!!. Maybe their own website will be next.

We think WillungaFestivals.com and InaNutshell fulfil a vital role for the Willunga District and things can only get better.

Andrew & Rilda Offe 08 8556 2554.

Zoe and Bethany Pfeiffer

Almond Blossom Festival in 2007

The year brought us a new management team for the festival. New additions and old favourites.

Phil Boulden was instrumental in co-ordinating a team of people from Willunga Uniting Church, local churches and the community group Fusion to provide some family fun events on fair day. The bonus being they were totally free to all. Activities were immensely popular including woodwork, balloon animals, stress balls, sand sculpture and bubbles; lots of mess! Other team games were also well patronised including lots of races and old favourites like the limbo. What I observed was people coming together from all over Adelaide to join in the crafts and games with their families. It can sometimes be rare to find time to talk with each other without the competing demands of time and money (and the TV/DVD etc). A family friendly event is worth travelling to was the feedback from the participants.

The success of this event has been seen in the numbers attending. Thanks must go to all the hard working co-ordinators of the family events, Phil Boulden and the Fusion volunteers, who really make it happen.

Phil reported that a team of over 50 volunteers was involved and generously offered their time. This included providing tents, equipment and manning the events. Phil stated that many who visited the activities said it was the most enjoyable event they attended. Looking forward to next year and another great community event.

Willunga Cricket Club Update

Last season the club fielded U12, U14, U16, C, B and A Grade teams in Great Southern Cricket Association matches. Congratulations to club Cricketer of the Year, Mick Hailstone. Several trophies were presented in all grades, acknowledging great batting, bowling and fielding from individual players. For the season about to begin, there will be expert coaching with the appointment of a head coach to oversee the senior grades and monitor the progress of juniors. Facilities and equipment are being improved, and specific social events are also on the calendar. There are opportunities for new players in all grades, so if you are a young one or a "once-was" cricketer, give Paul (club President) a ring on 08 8556 2886.

Are you a carer?

Can you tell us what support services carers need? Are you providing unpaid care to a person who needs support because of a disability, old age, physical or mental illness?

Being a carer requires commitment, time and energy. Sometimes you might need a break, advice or other support.

We are keen to hear about your experiences, and ideas about the kind of services that would make the role of carer easier.

Are you a local doctor, health worker or other service provider who works with carers or carees? We would welcome your comments about services that would benefit carers in the region.

A project team working for the Office for the Ageing will be gathering information for future services in the wider McLaren Vale area in August/September.

Photographic Competitions & Exhibitions

Photography is the popular technology of today... we have it everywhere... in our mobile phones, web cams, digital cameras and video cameras, on our computer programmes, DVD's, projector screens, etc... as well as 1000's of pics whizzing around cyberspace at any one time.

Creative ideas are being put forward for a Willunga Photographic Competition and Exhibition and maybe a Willunga Photographic Club. We have also received some offers of help.

Regular Competitions... Are you interested in regular Competitions and Exhibitions and if so how often... monthly, quarterly, bi-monthly or annually... maybe one each Willunga Quarry Market weekend? Proceeds from the event would go to the Willunga Recreation Park.

Photographic Club... Interested in a Photographic Club & if so meeting at a venue or on-line? Would this be a beneficial and constructive activity for our teenagers, young adults and oldies?

Please call Rilda Offe on 08 8556 2554 with your ideas.

Willunga Walking Festival

WANTED DEAD OR ALIVE

Your old shoes and boots for this year's Willunga Walking Festival, especially shoes that have a story. Shoes (and their stories) can be dropped off to Julia at The Old Bush Inn any time between now and September.

Willunga stalwart Sam Liddiard... 90

Sam Liddiard celebrated his 90 years with his twin brother Arthur and friends at Perry Park on Wed 8th of August. Sam is bright and chirpy and still able to tell many a good yarn about his days in Willunga. He seems to have a poor memory of his old girl friends, but then he always did! He misses his old white ute and his trotters.

Sam is a resident of Perry Park down on the Onkaparinga at Pt Noarlunga and is well looked after by caring staff.

Preliminary Notice...

Trees for Life, 7th November. Wedgetailed Eagles on the Fleurieu. Terry Dennis will present the findings of his recent survey.

Willunga Quarry Market Inc.

A non profit organisation managed by volunteers who give service to Willunga Township by providing a Tourist Attraction, and service to the stallholders by providing them with a well organised and well advertised venue to sell their wares. The other service provided by the Market to Willunga is the support given to various community projects. Recently $1,000 was donated towards the costume budget for Jamaeraw School of the Arts Inc., dancers who will be performing on 27 October at the Noarlunga Theatre. The impressive costumes for this performance are designed by 16 year old Tess Delony.

This generous donation was made to encourage a very talented local young designer. Children of stallholders often accompany their parents to the market from a very early age. Dean Hobby has been a familiar face at the Willunga Quarry Market for over 10 years. He helps his parents with their stall and during the past few years Dean has helped set up and dismantle the Market's infrastructure on market days. This help is invaluable. In recognition of Dean's services to the Market, the committee funded his St John Ambulance Australia, Senior First Aid course. Dean attended and passed the two day course during the winter school holidays. Congratulations Dean! In return, Dean has offered his first aid knowledge and skills should they be needed, on market days.

At the Willunga Quarry Market's AGM held on 11 August, founding member and treasurer, Jenny Peterson, retired after 20 years and 6 months volunteer service. Gratitude and many good wishes for future happiness accompany Jenny.

The next opportunity for a good shopping spree at the Willunga Quarry Market is on Saturday, September 8 from 9am to 1pm, where over 60 stallholders will be happy to serve you. New products for sale include a beautiful collection of hand embroidered manchester suitable for birthday, wedding and Christmas gifts. Come along and enjoy a leisurely shopping experience in a friendly rural community.

Annual General Meeting & Dinner...

Just a reminder that the WTTA AGM will be held at the Old Bush Inn on Tuesday 11th September, 2007 with the usual Dinner commencing at 6.30 pm prior to the Meeting. An attractive Menu has been prepared by our Host – Julia Hand at the cost of $20 per head and we'll be pleased to receive your reservation. Our Tour Down Under Chairperson- Howard Salkow who is busy making himself known to our Willunga Community, is our Guest Speaker and will talk of his vast experiences and officially "Launch TDU 2008." We are delighted that our Patron – Ray Gilbert and Mrs. Gilbert will be in attendance. Our Acting President Michael Pacillo is anxious to make contact with YOU regarding the position of President. His phone number is 08 8556 1101.

Howard Salkow TDU Chairperson writes...

As the inaugural inductee into the TDU Hall of Fame, the town of Willunga is eagerly awaiting next year's 10th anniversary celebrations to show why it has won the Best Dressed Town Gold award on five consecutive occasions.

From 2001 to 2005, Willunga won the KESAB Best Dressed Town competition, and based on being awarded Gold in the "Overall Best Dressed Town" for this period, the town was inducted into the TDU Hall of Fame in January this year.

The Hall of Fame is designed to recognize the towns of SA for their contribution and outstanding presentation during the TDU. This is a community-based award for the towns' continuous support and commitment to the TDU by decorating their townships, commercial premises and private residences.

We are already geared up to show why Willunga has done so well over the years. Next year marks the 10th anniversary of the TDU and the fifth stage in Willunga is being held on Australia Day, and it's therefore no surprise the event is already generating interest in the town.

Although the theme had yet to be finalised at the time of this going to press it is hinted that celebrating a Decade of Excellence seems to be the logical choice. Once again we will be capitalising on the enormous talent to "dress up" up the town and our committee is already committed to the task.

The 2008 TDU Willunga Committee comprises: Howard Salkow (Chairperson), Julia Hand, Judy and Brian Visser, Jean van Driel, Pam Jensen, Carolyn and Peter Colling and Jenni Mitton.

I am looking forward to working with the businesses, the volunteers, various organisations, clubs and associations in the town, Events SA and the City of Onkaparinga, who provide huge support.

For further information contact Howard 08 8556 1172

STOP PRESS - Tourism Appointment...

Howard Salkow, our Chairperson of the 2008 Tour Down Under Willunga Committee, has been appointed a member of the Fleurieu Peninsula Tourism Marketing Committee. This two-year appointment was confirmed in August by Tourism Minister Dr. Jane Lomax-Smith.

Julia Hand at the Old Bush Inn and Luke her head chef are planning fine food and fun for the Trade and Tourism Dinner.

So book early.

8. Tennis- Mike Adams The club has lost a coach due to injury but a replacement is now on deck. Shelving is proposed to go in tennis store room. Anne said that was OK with netball club.

9. Table Tennis-Darryl Peters The new season will start in August after the Ball.

10. Quarry market-Pam Jensen Only 30 bookings had been made for the ABF day. This is quite disappointing.

11. Chess- Darryl Peters A few regulars continue to enjoy the ambient atmosphere.

12. Primary School: Mark Munzberg. Apology. Next school meeting in 3 weeks.

13. Maintenance report Bob Bastian -The electrical work has been completed. There were a couple of protective cages missing. Bob has created some replacements.

-Re Fence next to dentist: Bob has quote of $2180 from Pelican Panels for 11 metres of fencing 1.8m high which matches fencing at western gates. This is for supply only but Bob can install with some help. Bob suggested some screening shrubs.

-Bob advised new mats were required to prevent the gravel and other dirt being brought into the western entrance to stadium by the school children. Moved Darryl Peters/ Steve Roberts that Bob go ahead with required installation of mats and metal grid with a total approx cost of $500. Carried.

14. Presidents report-Trevor Desmond

Trevor commented on the excellent coverage in the 'InaNutshell'.

Next meeting...

Willunga Walking Festival Meeting Snippets from July 2007...

Street closure not happening as a result of meeting with sub committee led by Jerry

Coordinator Report Updates

Music, Gina Kellett... 1. Some people are organizing their own music 2. Gina is contacting performers.

Will contact School of Rock to find out their plans and discuss ways to fit it in with other events. School of Rock plan to set up 3 bands. Sisters of Abundance – night concert in association with Albert. All schools unable to do coordinated school events due to school holidays, however Gina and the schools will be encouraging children to busk. The Blue Doors will have a school children performance. Margo and Russell, small classical ensemble. Wendy Dyson Come n try. Natasha – circus music and busking. Farmers Market Choir – performing at market. Barbers Shop singing group, did it last year. Folk Festival want to advertise themselves and busk.

Maypole, need a coordinator and maybe some music.

Courthouse, Faye Lush and Sue... see October Events for details

Walks, Sue Caporn-March, Sue Murn and Jerry... suggested at least 4-5 walks... Garden Walk Tour – walking through village, maybe 2 town gardens, Collett Old House for composting. Cemetery Walk, Sue Murn. Heritage Building Walk. Energy Efficiency Walk. Slate Walk or Photographers Walk

Local Author, Brick Ovens, Backyards and Blokes, Helen McSkimming - Russell Jeavons, restaurateur and local author on Brick Ovens, Backyards and Blokes at the Willunga Library, for one hour, 10.30 – 11.30 to be confirmed.

Super Searches, Willunga Library, Helen... organizing an activity for teenagers, using the internet, super searching, getting the answers off the net.

Carbon Footprints, Environment Centre, David Gill... Willunga Basin Leda, part of Friends of Willunga Basin. Carbon Footprints, people can come in and measure own carbon footprint, bring along bills/gas/fuel usage bills. Learn ways to become carbon mutual. Guest speaker – Origin Energy. Films will be shown during the day. Maggie Hines, Onkaparinga Council, is very enthusiastic about possibly organizing some guest speakers, maybe professors, etc to come and speak on climate change.

The Shoe, Jerry Keyte... At the WWF the shoe will be in the library car park, the building used as a backdrop, but this may change. Need seating for this area.

Circus & Stilt walking, Jerry Keyte... Still happening
Fun Walk/Run, Mike Pacillo

Willunga Peleton, Gerald Martin... Contacts for Event to be advertised In A Nutshell, Gerald Martin 0418 812 013 or David Roberts 0409 816 328. Rides to leave from 8am on the hour until 11 am or 12 noon from Duck Inn Deli, Café, Take-away. Depending on demand each ride being completed and returning to the Duck Inn on the hour, the option of course of anyone doing more than one ride. Rides will vary a little in the streets being covered. Any level or rider skills. Look for the red jacket riders with the Willunga Peleton logo on, important to promote ride as being assisted by the Willunga Peleton, to avoid legal liability. Is it possible for riders to meet at Willunga Library, and return to the library, to maintain focal point of the event? Needs to be promoted In-a-Nutshell.

Food, Margo... arranged for an Italian Café in front of Minko Wines/Russell's Pizzas with a small classical ensemble playing between 12-3pm. Happy foods are interested in doing some food as well, especially if we can get Jen Hanna to do coffee. Sue happy for this to be in front of Green Room.

Shoe Shine, John and Sue... John is making a shoe box stand, and will practice shoe shine technique.

Glass Blowing Display, Glen Howlett... will display glass blowing technique inside his shop 10-4pm both Sat and Sunday. Glen said this was great PR for him last year although he did not make money on the day, had up to 70 people come in. Glen asked committee if he could advertise as free admission, but request a gold coin donation. All agreed he could do as he wish.

STARS, Carolyn Collins... wants younger people to be involved this year, organising an event for the whole day, food and exhibition.

New Business

Churches... Jill Rivet re display of Mary McKillop bring out history of church 157 years old? Marg Bennett, Uniting Church, re sausage sizzle at the end of the Fun Run, or open church and history? Jacqui Bishop re Anglican Church want to be involved?

Funding.. applied for $5000 Tier 3, Sponsorship Program thru Onkaparinga Council. Letter has been received to acknowledge receipt, and we will be notified in September if this has been successful.

Bank of SA... Jayne Jansen, have available a large board which WWF can use for advertising. The Bank can promote the festival and place brochures on display. Has a marquee which may be available. Jerry asked if the Bank was interested in providing a small amount of funding in terms of environmental issues.

Secretarial – Position Vacant... Vicki advised committee that Karen has a paid job now! And will no longer be able to continue the secretarial position. Jerry and Vicki expressed their appreciation for Karen's support – thank you.

Almond Blossom Festival... Cheri contacted WWF and asked if we want an information stand at the Almond Blossom Festival. Jerry will have the shoe ready for parade, and Albert will do some theatrics on the day. Vicki to contact Rosie to see if she can do a flyer for the day to hand out.

Publicity & Program... Karen has compiled an Event List with most venues, and times of all events to date. This can be used to develop a programme. Karen has applied to Fleurieu Peninsula Tourism for WWF to be advertised in website or publications. Jerry wants to get a rough programme together and out to the public by end of July, to firm it up in August.

The Willunga Walking Festival is on October 13, 2007 so mark your diaries. Get involved today. Make suggestions or volunteer by calling...

Vicki Osland 0410 640 106.

Wasn't the Lobethal Harmony Club Concert fantastic? Congratulations to Neighbourhood Watch for putting on such an enriching event. The hall was full and the applause was long and loud.

Here is a photo of The Lobethal Harmony Club during their Jubilee Celebration with present day conductor Beryl Powel, accompanying champion solo trombonist Garth Offe (Willunga's pharmacist in the 1960's).

Maybe a concert in Willunga could be a regular event. Proceeds went to the Royal Flying Doctor Service.

Rural Hills South Community Forum...

The Forum chair, secretary and committee positions were open to public for nomination. Richard Franco was nominated and elected as Chairperson. Richard as a young, progressive and community minded person; his involvement and knowledge of local issues in Willunga and surrounds translates into a realisation of community objectives. Leon Corkran was nominated and elected as secretary with committee positions still vacant.

Attending City of Onkaparinga Manager of Public Health and Safety, Chris Button, gave an update on Corella movements in Willunga.

As a community contact, Leon gave an update from previous meeting discussion, eg Boweringhill Rd Land Management

Coorp land release, as well as a review on five workshops attended on behalf of the Forum as part of its desire to inform and involve the greater community, which could and will have an influence on our families and future residents.

Next Forum will be Thursday, November 22, 7.30pm at The Willunga Hub. A request has verbally been put to council to review its City of Onkaparinga's Contaminated Landsite Register as well as a presentation for the next meeting in November. We are seeking your assistance to identify contaminated land sites within our ward and council region. These sites can be of various descriptions, ie, former farm fuel storage sites, soil dump sites, former council operations and illegal operations, etc.

Secretary: Leon Corkran 08 8556 7449.

Willunga... a little bit of history

Willunga Station...

As from and including Thursday, August 1, 1968, the Willunga station will become an unattended station.

F.E.W. Martin, Secretary, SA Railways

Last Train Journeys...

Two trains pull out of Adelaide Railway Station in the coming week on sentimental last journeys to Willunga. The section of line from Hallett Cove to Willunga will close down on Wednesday. The Australian Railway Historical Society has organised a special day train trip to leave Adelaide on the 34 mile run to Willunga at 12.45 pm on Sunday, returning at 5.30 pm. A night journey will be made on Wednesday, leaving at 6.22 pm, and arriving back in Adelaide at 10.45 pm.

Two engines, withdrawn from service and now retained specifically for the society, will make the trips - the Duchess of Gloucester on Sunday and RX 207 on Wednesday.

The society's tour organiser, Mr. Dean L. Harvey, said today the engine on the Wednesday night journey, was of the same type used on the original run when the line was opened from Brighton to Willunga on January 21, 1915. Mr. Harvey said seats were available to the public. People should ring 78 3003 or call at 41 Main Road, Belair to buy tickets.,

The Railways Department did not handle bookings for these excursions. Fares were $3.20 for adults and $1.20 for children on Sunday, and $2.60 and $1 on Wednesday.

Salute To The End Of An Era...

On a recent Sunday, hundreds of people crowded into a steam train. Hundreds more followed its course by road, and others crammed vantage points on the 34 mile route from Adelaide to Willunga to pay tribute to a railway service that had served the South for 50 years.

The lucky train travellers, in a motley variety of dress, scrambled on board by 12.45, and so started a journey that will live in my memory for years.

They were young and old, smart and scruffy, bearded bods and mothers to be, kids and grandpas. Everybody, everybody's friend for a day.

There were lunches en route, cold beer in the buffet and the Guards had new flags, shiny shoes and freshly creased pants.

The mighty steam locomotive, belching smoke, black as the devil himself, whistled defiantly at every crossing, brakes hissing, and going clackety clack over the rails.

And then the photographers cameras of all shapes and sizes. Hordes of picture-takers lining up like an army at bay to shoot pictures and films of a monster of steel and wheels that will soon, like "Puff the Magic Dragon", hide away and be lost in dreams.

Yes, it was a day to remember. A host of waving hands from young and old to bid goodbye to an engine powered by steam and coal, whose wheels may never again ride its shiny tracks of steel from Adelaide down Willunga way.

Garth Offe- Southern Times

Last Trip...

A lot of people have sentimental reason for wanting to travel on tomorrow's last train trip to Willunga. But what better reason than that of Archie Dreghorn of Aldersgate, OG Road, Felixstow - he was on the first one. Archie has a picture to prove it. He's shown as the fireman on the RX engine nosing into a ribbon at Willunga Station., The ribbon was cut by Sir Henry Galway to open the line on January 25, 1915, says Archie

After that, Archie perspired up and down that line countless times. In those days, firemen really were firemen. They stoked, slaving over a hot footplate, losing a lot of weight - but according to Archie, they kept very fit. At 78 he's a lively soul with a sense of humour - and rarin' to go on that last trip. The trouble is, he hasn't been asked. Railways Historical Society - please note! - April 2, 1969.
