Showcasing... Willunga Library

Call in and see us soon!

School holiday fun
for older children.

Willunga Library... a part of Onkaparinga City Libraries...

What does your local library mean to you?

Traditionally...

a library was seen as an echoing "shush" place redolent with the distinctive smell of musty volumes.

Now...

In today's modern libraries, you will find children sharing Babytime and Storytime sessions and enjoying school holiday activities.

Willunga Library's bright and pleasant surroundings encourage easy access to the various print and electronic media collections of Onkaparinga Libraries, the largest public library service in South Australia.

Staff can also provide FREE access to all public library collections within South Australia [and interstate for a small fee]; give "up to the minute" Community Information, also supply a FREE internet portal to the electronic world. Help is available when using the computers, make photocopies or send faxes.

Not enough... There's more...

Council's Customer Service Officers are on hand to assist with any council issues.

Staff at the Willunga Library and Council Service Centre are active and visible participants in many community events. Willunga Almond Blossom Festival, Tour Down Under, Willunga Walking Festival and the recent Hans Christian Andersen 200 Birthday Celebration to mention a few. See photos on page 9.

Times Open...

On Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, and Friday we are open from 8:30 am - 5:00 pm. On Thursday, from 8:30 am - 6:00 pm, while on Sunday we are open from 2:00 - 5:00 pm.

Membership of the city of Onkaparinga libraries is FREE!

Make time to call in and say Hi! Perhaps read the newspaper, borrow a DVD or check your e mail.

News & Reports

St. Judes Catholic Church...

On the 9th of December, Fr Charles Gauci, Parish Priest of Willunga Catholic Parish celebrated 30 years of dedicated service to the Catholic Community of the Adelaide Archdiocese. The parishioners of Willunga had a special cake made to help Fr Charles celebrate the occasion.

(The photo shows young people of the church helping Fr Charles cut the cake). After a cup of tea and a slice of cake Fr Charles chaired a meeting of the local parishioners to discuss 2008 and the groups needed to keep the church running efficiently. It was a very positive meeting and all augers well for a successful year ahead. Jill Rivett, Parish Secretary Willunga Catholic Parish. Ph: 08 8556 2132. Fax: 08 8556 4221.

Willunga Recreation Park News...

Willunga Recreation Park, Main Rd, Willunga.

New Committee elected at October's AGM...

Mos Hancock was elected President, Anne McDonald as Vice-President, Brian Dempsey retained his position as Treasurer and Lucy Mahon has taken on the role as Secretary. The elected executive includes Steve Roberts, Bob Bastian, Gerald Martin, Graham Giles, Lee James, Trevor Desmond and Pamela Jensen. Congratulations to the Executive Committee and many thanks go to the outgoing President Trevor Desmond who has done such a wonderful job and worked tirelessly for the benefit of the Recreation Park and its members.

Strategic Plan for future...

The Willunga Recreation Park Committee with the assistance of the City of Onkaparinga has been working on a Strategic Plan. There is a view that the current capacity of the Recreation Park has been reached and plans need to be put in place to secure its continued future as it is the belief that without an injection of funding and a forward plan the Park will be at risk in meeting future demands. The goal of the Willunga Recreation Park Committee is to continue to provide a community managed and independently run recreation facility that offers the opportunity for the people of Willunga and districts to engage in sporting, recreational and cultural activities. In order to reach this goal, the Strategic Plan has been developed and it is hoped will be finalised in late January after a period of consultation from members.

November Meeting...

At the November meeting the committee approved painting the areas of the Recreation Hall most in need including toilets and wooden windows which are in dire need of an upgrade. The committee also has supported the Willunga Football Club in its proposal to erect a spectator and storage shed. The committee has approved the City of Onkaparinga holding a Tour Down Under Concert at the Recreation Park, which promises to be a fantastic event. Thanks to the City of Onkaparinga for the provision of an Emergency Response and Risk Management Plan for the Recreation Park to utilise for future events. Planning continues for the re-lining of the netball courts and the provision of shade for this area. Arrangements are well and truly underway for the 2008 Almond Blossom Festival which is our major fundraiser for the year and keeps the Recreation Park going. From preliminary discussions it appears that the Almond Blossom Festival will be bigger and better than ever. The Fleurieu Folk Festival was a great success and the Recreation Park Committee are pleased to have had the opportunity to assist and support this event. The Recreation Park Committee and its volunteers continue to work very hard to rectify ongoing maintenance issues.

If you have any time to spare and would like to assist, please contact Mos or Bob. It's OUR community Recreation Park...

BE PROUD OF IT AND GET INVOLVED.

Twilight Happy Hours...

Food Wine and Fun...

Main Rd, between Willunga & McLaren Vale at Leconfield, home of Richard Hamilton Wines.

The focus will be "Food, Wine and Fun" at the annual Twilight Happy Hours in the local wine region. Started originally as an extension of Cellar Door trading hours for those wishing to extend their tasting experiences beyond 5pm, the event is now in its sixth year. This year, six local wineries will join together to celebrate the silly season on these evenings of Friday 28th and Saturday 29th December from 5-9pm. The family event blends local wine from producers; Fox Creek, Leconfield, Penny's Hill, Pertaringa, Pirramimma, Wirra Wirra with food and music, giving you the opportunity to sit back and wile away the summer evenings in style.

The lawns of the Leconfield Winery (cnr Johnston & Main Rds) will be filled with the sounds of classic rhythm and blues from the Chris Finnen Band, hits from the 70s-90s from Silver Hair and the aroma of delicious barbecued Turkish pastries and other delights hand made on site with fresh local produce by Ozzie Gözleme. Children's food options will be available. Children's entertainment will also be provided throughout the evening with magic, clown shows and balloon animals. "This is a great opportunity to warm up for the New Year in style whilst enjoying the offerings of six fantastic wineries", said Leconfield Cellar Door and Events Manager, Rina Lockwood. Both wines by the glass and takeaway sales will be available.

Entry is via a small fee of $5 per adult (including a souvenir twilight happy hour glass or coffee), with children free. Bookings are not required but there is limited seating and visitors are encouraged to BYO chair or rug.

A range of accommodation in Willunga is available, giving you the opportunity to extend your stay. For bookings and information see Pages 10 and 11 or www.WillungaFestivals.com Images available by email or on CD on request.

Your Change of Name...

One door closes, with the end of Willunga Trade & Tourism Association Inc. and another door opens for a successful year for... Willunga Business and Tourism Association Inc...

In welcoming the members to our Special Meeting in November, to adopt a new Constitution and change of name, our President Howard Salkow said, "This better reflects who we are and what we stand for and I am delighted to say that the name change, and a new constitution, has been wholly endorsed at this meeting".

Members will also be receiving a membership sticker which they can display in their business or shop windows.

Howard went onto say, "There is still a lot that needs to be done and over the next twelve months, our committee will map out what we want to achieve. Your input is critical to this process and we will be in touch to understand your needs and wants and how we can enhance our town".

At the conclusion of the meeting, our Christmas BBQ, so beautifully prepared by Julia and her Chef where all enjoyed a very happy social gathering. Howard was once again busy collecting "Door Prizes" and everyone received a prize which had been generously donated for the evening.

Youth Alliance Awards...

I was ever so proud to have the privilege of representing our Association at the evening arranged by our Mayor Lorraine Rosenberg with many young apprentices receiving their awards. Our nomination for Apprentice of the Year was Sam Addis who received his award from the Mayor (photo below). Robin Miller of Miller Electrical, was also rewarded for his support and interest given to his apprentice and for his community work in Willunga. Miller Electrical was very well represented with Stephen Miller (son) and Andrew von Blanckensee who unfortunately did not qualify for an apprenticeship.

Our Association would like to acknowledge the wonderful work Youth Employment Alliance renders to our youth, giving them an opportunity to take on an apprenticeship and thus find employment in the business world.

Our special thanks to Martin Threadgold, Project Manager, Glenn Hickling and Janis Daumann both from the City of Onkaparinga. Special thanks to Janis Daumann who went out of her way to make these pictures available.

New Members:

With many new visions for the future of our Association we are looking for members to swell the ranks bringing ideas and support in the promotion of our town... Willunga.

2008 Tour Down Under... NEW Pro Tour Status... FIRST outside Europe...

The start of a new year also means that the Tour Down Under will soon be hitting town. And this year in marking its 10th anniversary, and with its new ProTour status, the 2008 TDU has been named as the first race outside of Europe to host a leg of the Union Cycliste Internationale's (UCI) ProTour series.

It's an event that many look forward to, with many in the town putting in a lot of time and hard work. And the 2008 TDU Willunga Committee has called on a number of resources to achieve its objectives as it hosts Stage 5 on 26 January, which is also Australia Day. (See bottom left for race.)

10th Anniversary...

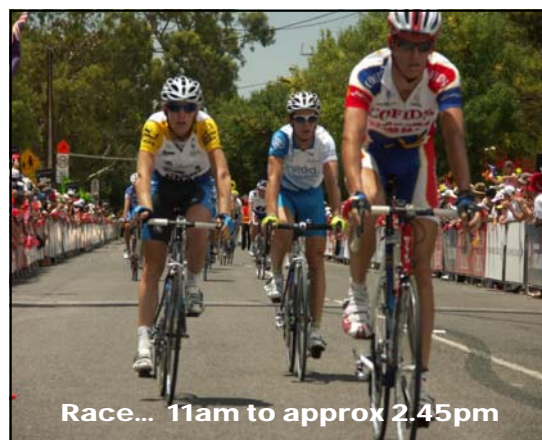

For the 10th anniversary celebrations, the committee embarked on a major drive to engage the community and this resulted in 36 businesses coming on board as sponsors of Willunga's celebrations. These companies were listed in last month's issue of On the Coast and the InaNutshell. (see left)

An event of this magnitude cannot survive without Council grants and sponsorship, and the 2008 TDU Willunga Committee is indebted to the support and commitment from the City of Onkaparinga and the town's businesses.

Goodie Bags...

And in a shift from the norm, the Committee decided to showcase its sponsors by producing cards with their logos on. In addition to this, Thank You banners were created listing the sponsors and on race day, 1,000 Goodie Bags with sponsors' information will be handed out to spectators.

Race... 11am to approx 2.45pm

From an entertainment point of view, this year will feature a fashion parade presented by The Green Room, Tall Poppy Productions and The Spock Sisters. There will be a concert by the highly talented Julia Henning from Imagenel; along with a hat competition; native animals, representatives and information organised by the Native Animal Network; buskers and face painting.

Bicycle Display...

We have also not lost sight of Australia Day and our colour scheme - in particular our "old bicycle display" - of red, white and blue will be hard to miss. And the traditional Rotary-organised Australia Day breakfast will be in the Rose Garden on Aldinga Road from 8:30am until 10:00am. The key to any event held annually is to be different and possibly unique. Some of the innovations have been dis-

Julia Henning... 1:10-1:50pm

2007 has been a hectic year for local artist Julia Henning. After a sold out season in the Adelaide Fringe last year she travelled to New York City for a mentorship with world class cabaret performer, Karen Kohler. Landing back in Australia in August, Julia enjoyed another sold out performance at Waverly Homestead with her return show "New York, New York". A tribute to her travels and to Olive Reeder who had been influential in sending her to New York.

Next year Julia will be appearing in the Adelaide Fringe with her three person play 'Y2K' alongside Ashleigh Rathjen and Emma Bargery. She will also be recording her original works and developing exciting new projects for her production company 'imagenel.com'. See www.imagenel.com

New Beginnings...

On Tuesday November 13th around 150 people, including a large number of children, gathered at the creek behind the old courthouse to celebrate reconciliation as Willunga's response to hosting the visit of the World Youth Day Cross, Icon and Message Stick. World Youth Day will be held next year in Sydney and is a celebration of faith for the youth of the world.

In Willunga, the local community used the day as a chance for a new beginning - to come in peace and with respect for the Aboriginal people and their culture and spirituality. The site where the ceremony was held is a traditional meeting area and is a beautiful and peaceful spot with the sound of the spring flowing through and the birds singing in the trees. We followed the young people

Tom Gleeson gave a moving speech highlighting the suffering of the Aboriginal people and led those gathered in an apology. The offering of peace brought about a hope for moving forward in unity, celebrating the richness of all peoples. Elder Georgina Williams responded graciously from the heart and invited Tom to place a stick on the fire with her as a symbol of a new, shared connection. Then we all joined in singing a special song celebrating creation, "Embrace with Peace and Love", written by Naomi Hicks.

After a procession down High Street to the Town Square, all those gathered were invited to commit to walking together for justice and peace on our journey towards reconciliation. There were suggestions made on how to do this in a practical way such as being involved in cross-cultural workshops; helping run art, craft, music and dance workshops with young people; being involved in a reconciliation study group and helping to commemorate the Kaurna people's connection with the site of the ceremony.

The celebration was completed with a shared lunch and more inspiring music by Kylie, Marty, Naomi and Tony. It was a very powerful and special time and more activities are planned for the new year.

carrying the cross down to the stream where a group of Aboriginal people welcomed us with a fire ceremony. We walked through the cleansing smoke and watched as the message stick was presented to two young Kaurna men.

STOP PRESS:

We've been notified that the new McLaren Vale Shopping Development Application was passed by Onkaparinga City Council.

It would appear, it was put through an incorrect category for a MAJOR development, so objections could not be raised.

Willunga... George Eden, Willunga High School Magazine, 1966.

*Although in size a small country town,
Willunga's claim to great renown,
Is three hotels its short main street,
Which you'll agree is no mean feat.*

*Things were not of course always so,
In pioneer days of long ago.
When travellers going to Encounter Bay,
Passed through its streets while on the way.*

*Some on foot with packs on their backs,
Others riding the dusty tracks,
Later on teams of bullocks came,
And this was the cause of Willunga's fame.*

*Resting their teams before the climb,
The drivers spent a pleasant time,
Quenching their thirst and swapping a tale,
As they washed down the dust with a glass of ale.*

*With resting over, they'd pick up their whips,
And leave the bar with a few last sips,
Out to their teams, shouts fill the air,
Of colourful language they knew their share.*

*As we flash by on our paved highways,
Tis hard to remember those long lost days,
But the pubs, and some other buildings too,
Take us back to the past that the bullockies knew.*
