October Willunga Quarry Market...

Take a walk down memory lane at the Willunga Quarry Market on Saturday 11 October. Keith Preston is bringing his travelling Punch and Judy Show along to entertain the child within. There will be two performances, the first at 10.30am and the next at 12 noon. This is a performance the whole family will enjoy, so come along and shop and snack and rest and watch while Keith creates a little nostalgic puppet magic.

Be sure children take a peek through the tent window at the popcorn stall. They can see Graham's popcorn making performance and enjoy a free sample. Sugar and sulphur free fruit wraps are very popular with the whole family, taste before you buy. New products to taste: chocolates and spicy Tagine.

There are plaster moulds for sale that can be decorated on site or taken home, bead making kits, toy cars and much more for children to discover at the Market.

Last summer was a testing time for horticulturists and gardeners alike. The big discovery for most gardeners was that their garden could survive on less water. With correct soil preparation and mulch you can still have a summer garden. The plant growers at the Willunga Quarry Market are experts in their field and therefore will give sound, friendly advice. Indulge in some potted colour, kitchen garden seedlings, geraniums, native and introduced trees and shrubs and palms and tropical plants. Terracotta garden products will become available this month. Also look for the composted pig manure, food for your plants.

Winner of the Adelaide Biplane scenic flight will be published in the Advertiser, Public Notices, Saturday 13 December 2008. Thank you, to all survey participants.

If you enjoy your visit to the Market, please consider nominat- ing the Willunga Quarry Market for the Fleurieu Peninsula "Tell Us" Tourism Awards! Round 1 ends on 30 November. Printed nomination forms and stamped, addressed envelopes are available at our Information Tent, which is signed above the entrance.

The Willunga Quarry Market is located on Willunga Recreation Park oval grounds and trades from 9am to 1pm.

This year our Popular Vote segment will continue.

We will also completely transform our church by removing all the inside fixtures to allow room for the exhibition.

Catering will be outdoors, which will include our memorable Devonshire teas and stalls.

The community can again look forward to the Sisters of Abundance choir and the Campbelltown Brass Band entertaining us.

If you would like to know more about the festival and how to enter your own tree please contact either Annette or Jenny. Last year we connected with another festival held in England and are always looking for ideas for the festival.

The festival will be held on November 29th & 30th from 10am to 4pm.

The renovation and building project of the community hall is making great progress. We look forward to announcing its completion.

National Trust News...

The recent re-roofing of the Court House building has provided a much needed improvement to the appearance of this heritage-listed building, as well as preventing the possibility of leaks and water damage through the old roof. Insulation was installed at the same time, as well as an upgrade of the power points in the Court House. This was arranged and funded by the City of Onka-paringa which is the owner of the building.

We understand that there have been some proposed additions and deletions from the Council's Local Heritage list and that the full report is available at Council Offices including Willunga. If you are interested in these issues, we recommend you look at the Local Heritage Development Plan Amendment Draft and make your comments by 24th October.

If you notice that some of the historical plaques at the Court House are missing, it is because they have been stolen.

Secretary: Charlotte Wells 08 8333 1208 or 08 8556 2245.

Almond Blossom Festival raises $12000+...

Willunga Rec Park committee thanks Cheri George for her great effort with the 2008 Festival and look forward to a special event in 2009 to celebrate our 40th Year of the Festival.

The committee spent $90,000 in the 2007-8 year on maintenance. It plans to undertake much needed refurbishment to the Recreation Hall in the coming year which will require a concerted fundraising effort... led by the Almond Blossom festival.

One of the first markets in Linear Park with a stall holder selling lovely organic vegetables; firewood; cow manure; flowers and even worms. If this is you or you know the stall holder, please call us so we can update our archives.

Showcasing Willunga Quarry Market Inc...

Established 1986

Held on second Saturday every month 9am to 1pm.

Location: Aldinga Road WILLUNGA between Willunga Hardware & CFS.

The Willunga Quarry Market was the brainchild of Megan Guster, Sally French-Kennedy and Jenny Peterson (who served as treasurer up until June 2007). The following quote is from the Proposal to Willunga District Council dated September 1986.

“Short term aim: to explore the possibilities of establishing a market for the use of local people in marketing their skills and produce to both local people and tourists.

Long-term aim: to establish a regular and permanent market that will enhance and develop the historic and rural character of Willunga and provide fulfilment for the people in the district interested in supplementing their incomes through personal skills and / or home grown produce.”

Having negotiated with Ian & Miriam Collett, to use their dis-used quarry (which is alongside the Willunga National Trust Court House and Police Station Museum), questionnaires were circulated throughout the district.

If you have photos which can be added to our archives please call or us.

Markets at what was the Scout Hall, where the Netball/Tennis Courts are now.

There was a good response, so negotiations commenced with the Willunga District Council and the WILLUNGA QUARRY MARKET was registered as an Incorporated Association on 20 November 1986.

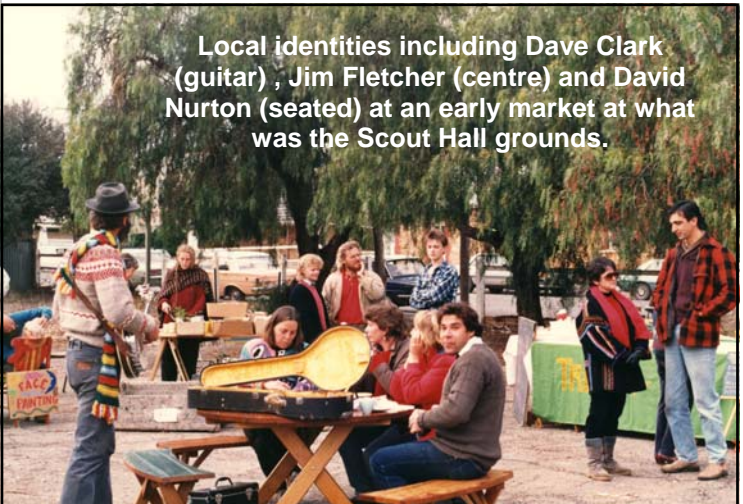

Willunga District Council rejected the quarry as a suitable site for a market and offered a site on Linear Park for the inaugural market on Saturday 6 December 1986, which was held from 9am to 3pm. Some of the 32 stallholders at the first market are still living in the district, these include: Adrian Strachan, Rosie Knott, Chris Glaetzer, Alison Leaney, Joan Hudd and Dave Clarke.

Council had development plans for Linear Park and so negotiations took place with the Willunga Scout Group to use their site on the corner of Aldinga Road and Railway Terrace on the second Saturday monthly. The Willunga Quarry Market was held on the Willunga Scout Grounds from 11 April 1987 to 29 September 2001.

To make way for the long awaited return of the Willunga Netball Club to the Willunga Recreation Park Inc. fold, the Willunga Quarry Market relocated to our present site on the oval grounds on Saturday 13 October 2001.

In 1991 Joan Turner then Willunga Almond Blossom Festival coordinator approached committee to hold a market on the last Saturday in July to support and extend the festival. The first market supporting the WABF was held on Willunga Recreation Park Grounds and was a complete wash out. The following year the Market returned to the Scout Grounds for this annual event. The last Willunga Quarry Market, Almond Blossom Festival Market was held July 2007.

From 2001 to 2005 we held five successful Dolls Bears and Miniatures Fairs and Spring Garden & Produce Markets as part of ‘Weekend in Willunga’. The demise of these highly successful events was the inability to attract new volunteers.

More Willunga Quarry Market’s milestones:

11 years support with sponsorship and planning for the Tour Down Under.

Receiving a Certificate of Encouragement at the 1999 inaugural Fleurieu Tourism Awards. Presented by the Hon. Joan Hall MP, the Minister for Tourism.

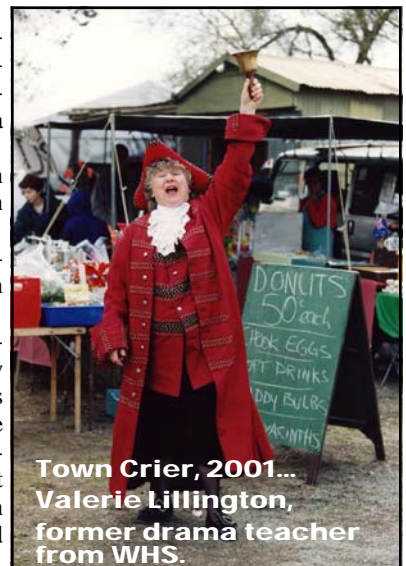

Participating in Willunga’s 160th Anniversary of Settlement in the same year.

Working jointly with Willunga Trade & Tourism Association Inc and Willunga Recreation Park Inc to establish a Willunga Town Crier.

Built the Goodies Bike in 2000 for the 2001 Tour Down Under.

The printing of our first coloured DL Market brochure in 2000.

2001 sponsored the inaugural City of Onkaparinga Poetry competition prize for 13 years and under. Also sponsored the trophy, which was made by former Willunga Quarry Market committee member Meredith Cilento. WQM have continued to sponsor this prize.

Town Crier, 2001... Valerie Lillington, former drama teacher from WHS.

When the Market moved to the present site we had no storage space. Russell Jeavons kindly lent us shed space on Aldinga Road. Getting the Market gear onsite entailed transporting two trailer loads of paraphernalia to the site and back. In 2002 we had saved enough money to build our own storage shed.

In the same year we sponsored the Tick Toe at the Onkaparinga Playground.

July 2003 featured in Postcards in July and in their annual book.

In 2004 www.willungaquarrymarket.com was launched.

2005 shared the cost of the Hans Christian Andersen Memorial Reading Seat with STARS. This seat is located on the Shiraz Trail at the Willunga end of the trail.

Participated in and supported Willunga Walking and a Taste of China in 2006. We also celebrated our 20th Anniversary in December of that year and Roz Becker Regional Marketing Manager of Fleurieu Peninsula Tourism launched our latest DL brochure.

On 28 August Mayor Lorraine Rosenberg presented a Certificate of Appreciation to the Willunga Quarry Market for 20 years of Service to the Community.

Frequently there is good entertainment such as: Tamarisque, Tea Rose Duo, Wendy Dyson's student violinists, Sisters of Abundance and Keith Preston's Punch & Judy show, to mention a few.

The Willunga Quarry Market supports this community in two ways...

Through providing a low cost venue for growers, producers, inventors and artists to sell their wares, sponsorship for events, providing free trading sites for fund raising and promotion of events, and through our connections with Fleurieu Peninsula Tourism and the South Australian Tourism Commission by attracting tourists to Willunga. We also support Willunga's traders by buying local and by displaying their business cards and brochures at the Market's Information Tent.

On the second Saturday of every month we provide a, relaxed shopping experience for locals and visitors (especially families). At the Willunga Quarry Market you can, in many instances, meet and talk to the grower, producer, inventor or artist. You receive personalised and friendly service at a rural outdoor setting. There are tasty and nutritious refreshments and we provide shaded outdoor table settings.

Seven dedicated volunteers manage the Market and they enjoy it! We also have a dedicated team of extra helpers (who assist set up and dismantling of market infrastructure), and we could do with more. Fleurieu Folk Festival 2008

InaNutshell in conjunction with www.WillungaFestivals.com

6pm Friday 24th - 8pm Sunday 26th October

Join in the family fun of the Fleurieu Folk Festival...

Willunga comes alive to a feast of entertainment from some of Australia's finest folk musicians including Keith Potger (from The Seekers), Eric Bogle, Celtaclysmic, Chris Finnen, The Fiddle Chicks, The Lonely Cosmonauts and over 85 performers from all over Australia. There's plenty of food, craft stalls, great fun and entertainment for the kids with puppet shows, clowns and a special Young Talent Showcase. It's a feast of music, poetry, bush dances and more, even Dr Knickerbocker! The majority of the Festival is FREE with only a small entry charge of $10 per day for the major concerts in the Stadium.

There will be a strong accent on the young performers this year, many in the 18-25 age group, including: Garida (SA), Celtaclysmic (Vic), Craig Sinclair (WA), Loren Kate (SA), Georgia Germein (SA), Tom Richardson (Vic), Jessica Paige (Vic), Gurdy Girl (SA), Sarah McGuire (SA). They will all be featured in a series of special "Young Performer" concerts over the weekend. Celtaclysmic will also be presenting a workshop on interpreting and arranging traditional music in a modern context for the benefit of young local musicians in that age group interested in developing their expertise in playing and presenting Celtic/folk music.

The Country Arts SA "Step Into The Music" Workshops Programme includes a diverse selection of "hands on" workshops and thematic concerts featuring vocals/harmony, song writing, a wide variety of instruments, musical arrangements, dance, the list goes on and on - there's something for everyone! Some by our special guest performers include "Contemporary song writing & its relevance to today's society" (Eric Bogle), "The British folksong tradition transported to Australia" and "Songs that made Australia" (Danny Spooner), "Arranging music for 3 fiddles and female voices" (The Fiddle Chicks), "Ukulele: Learn to play for Adults & Children" (Mike Jackson), "Alternate Guitar Tunings" (Vince Brophy). It's a unique opportunity for musicians, singers & dancers of any age to develop their skills. As well as the huge variety of events at the Recreation Park grounds and hall complex the action will extend into the town a little more this year with sessions and poetry events happening in the Willunga Hotel (the middle pub) and some acoustic acts programmed to perform at Christina's on High Street on Saturday and Sunday.

There's even the chance for those not included in the programme to put their name down (on the day) to step up and sing a couple of songs at one of the "open mic" blackboard concerts.
